Program Overview

The McCauley Mountain Ski Skills School is an exciting and fun learn-to-ski program designed for children ages 4–12 who are new to skiing or developing foundational mountain skills. Our Ski School emphasizes safety first and builds upward from there. Children learn balance, control, mountain awareness, and dynamic skiing skills through a curriculum designed by PSIA-certified McCauley instructors!

Program Levels & Ages

Level 1: Explorers

Ages 4–6

Ability: Beginner (Green Runs ●)

New skiers developing balance, stopping, turning, and confidence on gentle terrain.

Level 2: Adventurers

Ages 5–7

Ability: Beginner/Intermediate (Green & Blue Runs ●■)

For skiers comfortable on green trails and ready to refine technique.

Level 3: Mountaineers

Ages 6–12

Ability: Intermediate (Blue Runs ■)

For skiers ready to strengthen technique, ski steeper blue terrain, and work toward independence.

General Requirements

ALL Participants for all levels must be able to manage their equipment, ski unassisted on easy green terrain, use rope tows or lifts unassisted (age appropriate). Consistent attendance is encouraged for best progress.
